

control of motorcycle and it dashed into lake off Adams st.

Dr. Frank Deacon plans erection of new 11-story hospital.

Wm. Welch, paroled convict from Michigan City, caught in home of Emanuel Marx, 1541 Birchwood av.

Wm. P. Bogert, Jr., son of Board of Trade operator, sued for divorce by Agnes Bogert. Infidelity charged. Alma Stuckwys named.

Mrs. Pearl M. Elwell, 423 E. 45th pl., accused Arthur T. Elwell, actor, of being attentive to Lillian Lang and Clara Sands. Divorce.

Ignacis Talimanis, 28, 1439 E. 64th, and Frank Raymon, 25, 6200 Harper, said to have confessed many thefts from Hyde Park high school.

Thos. Novatny, owner of defunct bank, given 30 days to pay balance due Mrs. Antonio Choura, for whom he sold mortgages for $4,800.

Body of Emil Lehmann, 4650 Winthrop av., watchman, believed slain by river thieves, taken from river at Pine st. Missing since Feb. 22.

Bomb exploded under home of Thos. Rinella, 635 W. 25th. Small damage. Jealous suitor for hand of daughter, Mary, believed responsible.

Henry Vogenschutz fined $5, Jacob Hugel and Fred Hackett discharged and three others took jury trials when arraigned for running lottery.

Five bandits raided office of J. M. McDermott's sales stables, 739 W. 42d; made 9 men turn back to wall. Escaped with $1,000 in money and jewelry.

Mrs. Clara O. Shepard, daughter of late Henry O. Shepard, who was sued for $40,000 by Mrs. Florence Hull on alienation charge, denied she tried to settle suit out of court.

Chicago Stage Co., new auto bus company, headed by R. M. Mead, and said to be backed by N. Y. capital, given permission to operate on South Side. First rival of Chicago Motor Bus Co.

Russell J. Dyer, 5458 Cornell av., grandson of late Jos. Russell Jones, one-time U. S. minister to Belgium, wants divorce from cousin-wife, Josephine Dyer, 5210 Harper av. Desertion.

Birth control clinic may be opened in Chicago, says Margaret Sanger.

Three robbers got $112 and raincoat from Arthur Friend, 840 Buckingham pl.

Mrs. Freda K. Earl, 6044 Woodlawn av., said Willard G. Earl lived with another woman for week. Divorce.

Spencer R. Smith, principal Wendell Phillips high school, died in Pittsburgh today.

Three negroes held up Peter Baker, Detroit, at 24th and Wabash. After running gun duel, Policeman Jesse Harper caught Curtis Talbot, 4040 Federal.

Judge Sullivan will hear habeas corpus case of John Hartley, brother of Catholic bishop of Columbus O., held for extradition to that city, for alleged non-support of wife.

Jas. Smith, 6208 S. Ada, colored, member of Negro Baptist church, accused of stealing box of soap, got freedom by singing "Jesus, Lover of My Soul" for Judge Graham.

Mrs. Caroline Haentz, 61, 7349 Yale av., seriously injured at Clark and Monroe by fenderless auto truck of Hastings Express Co. A. Niehoff, driver, 3417 Melrose, arrested.

Arthur Hickin, 10734 Stephenson av., and Jas. Dempsey, 15, 10608 Langley av., arrested. Latter said they planned to rob Halsey Bros.' pharmacy, 111 N. Wabash av.

John McWilliams, 4940 Wabash av., armed with gun tried to hold up Lelewer's hat store, 75 W. Washington. Fired shot and ran. Caught by five members Co. D. First infantry.

W. Scott Matthews, state food com'r, and Edw. J. Tobin, county sup't of schools, plan to buy calf for every school child and teach them to raise it as part of food campaign.

Wm. Cosgrove, 2212 W. 13th, member 7th infantry, I. N. G., admitted he and pal held up Frank Bartley, street car conductor, and A. Levin, 2100 Kendall. Refused to name pal.